U.S. 127 to become 4-lane highway in Clinton County April 13

New lanes for northbound traffic will be open

SOMERSET, Ky. (April 9, 2012) – All four lanes of the new U.S. 127 – the Albany Bypass- will be opened for traffic from Crudewell Drilling to KY 90 in Clinton County on Friday, April 13, weather permitting.

Southbound lanes were opened in December 2011 and have accommodated both southbound and northbound traffic until now.

With the opening of new, northbound traffic lanes, southbound lanes will be resurfaced while “under traffic.” Drivers should expect delays and are encouraged to allow extra time in reaching their destination.
